

Welcome to KFUPM

Dr. Lewis Liu

Assistant Professor

Department of Accounting and Finance

Affiliated with Interdisciplinary Research Center for Finance & Digital Economy

Education:

PhD. in Finance from The University of Queensland, Australia - 2022

Previous Institution:

University of Queensland, Australia; Associate Lecturer / Research Fellow, (2022–2026)

Research Profile (SCOPUS):

Total Citations: 229

Total Journal Publications: 17

H-index: 7

Professional Interests:

Corporate Finance
Financial Market

About Dr. Liu:

Dr Liu's research spans fintech, debt markets, credit risk, banking governance, green and climate finance, with a particular focus on how ESG practices shape firm performance and capital market outcomes across emerging and developed economies. His work has been published in the Pacific-Basin Finance Journal, Economic Modelling, International Journal of Managerial Finance, Journal of Asset Management, etc. and has presented at leading academic conferences. He has been recognized with a Best Researcher Award, a China Scientist Award. He also brings substantial industry experience as analysts and advisors roles at banks and consulting firms and the government sector.